Dr. Potsangbam is an expert in Patent Drafting, Prosecution, and IP Portfolio Management.

Dr. Lunalisa Potsangbam has joined MS Law Partners to lead the Firm's IPR Practice in Pune.

A registered Patent Agent and an advocate, Dr. Potsangbam is an expert in Patent Drafting, Prosecution, and IP Portfolio Management with around two decades of experience across chemical and technology-driven businesses. In the past, she was involved with Lakshmikumaran & Sridharan.

Ayush Sharma, Managing Partner at MS Law Partners, said:

“Opening our Pune office underscores our commitment to empowering India’s innovators with robust and forward-looking IPR strategies. Dr. Lunalisa’s exceptional expertise and leadership forged through her unique skill set and experience, will be pivotal to strengthening our position in this area. At MS Law Partners, we are dedicated to fostering an ecosystem where intellectual assets thrive, and this partnership exemplifies our dedication to excellence and client success.”

Abhishek Magotra, Managing Partner at MS Law Partners, said:

“It is a proud moment for our firm as we start this new chapter starting up the Pune office under the leadership of Dr. Lunalisa. Pune had been close to my heart since I graduated from that city and reuniting with the city had been a dream for both Ayush and me since we came together. This growth specially under the able supervision of Dr. Lunalisa is a proof of our commitment towards our clients and our passion towards intellectual property. The firm is committed to spread its reach and services across the world and uplift the innovator fraternity and we are excited to embark on this new journey.”

Dr. Potsangbam added:

“I am more than delighted to join MS Law Partners at this important juncture. Pune’s vibrant innovation ecosystem offers immense opportunities to improve IP protection and commercialization. I look forward to partnering with the team to create innovative, resilient IP solutions that propel businesses forward”.

This development strengthens the Firm’s national footprint and enhances its ability to serve clients in the Biotech, IT, Pharmaceutical, Automotive and Technology sectors, especially in the Western region.
