Internships

Internship Opportunity at Policy & Politics

About the Organisation

It is a dynamic team focused on shaping the future of public policy by engaging with some of the most pressing and challenging issues of our time. Their work is fast-paced, intellectually stimulating, and impactful, providing opportunities for individuals passionate about making a real difference in the political landscape.

About the Opportunity

The firm is looking for interns to join us for a paid role in core political advisory and politically impactful policy work. The work will be challenging, with rigorous time commitments, but the experience would be unmatched.

Roles and Responsibilities

You'll get to work on real policy advocacy and political advisory projects, gaining hands-on exposure to critical issues, guided by some of the most experienced in this space.

Eligibility Criteria

Someone with strong analytical and engaging writing skills
A deep thinker who enjoys rigorous research and deep work
Curious minds who love exploring niche topics and unconventional ideas

How to Apply?

Click on the link provided below

Application Deadline

February 28, 2025

Click here to apply.

Lawread